SIX ARE INDICTED.

Officers of Shoe Machinery Company Are Under Fire.

Boston, Sept. 19.—Six officers of the United Shoe Machinery Company were indicted on two counts today by the Federal grand jury for violations of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The indictment charges the maintenance of an unlawful combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade on the part of President Sydney Winslow, Vice President Edward P. Hurd, George W. Brown, William Harbison, James J. Storrow, and Elmer P. Howe. Both indictments charge that the officers operated through the United Shoe Machinery Company in a manner that made them individually liable to criminal prosecution under the Sherman law.

The indicted individuals are counted among the most prominent business men of the country.

The papers in the case set forth all the facts connected with the merger of the three old shoe manufacturing corporations on September 2, 1899. These concerns were the Consolidated and McKay Lasting Machinery Company, formerly dominated by Winslow, Hurd and Brown; the McKay Shoe Machinery Company, formerly dominated by James J. Storrow; the Goodspeed Shoe Machinery Company, formerly dominated by Harbison and Howe.

LA FOLLETTE AGENTS ENTER NEW ENGLAND

They Say Insurgent Movement Is Spreading There.

Insurgency will further invade New England. This was learned yesterday when Madell McCormick, the young Chicago politician and Rudolph Spreckels, of San Francisco, left for Boston to organize an insurgent movement in Massachusetts, which shall later spread all over New England.

After the two progressive leaders had left, the headquarters of the La Follette wing of the Republican party here announced their mission. It was stated that scores of letters and petitions had come from Boston and other centers of population in New England asking for support.

Letters, telegrams, and other appeals were a great surprise to the managers of the movement here, and at once the two campaigners, who are assisting in financing the La Follette boom, decided upon an excursion East. They will arrive in Boston to-day and will confer with Louis Brandeis and other insurgents of that city.

After the Massachusetts situation had been rounded up, McCormick and Spreckels will go to New Hampshire, where insurgency already has a foothold. Maine, Connecticut, and Vermont will also be visited.

GROSSCUP TO TURN TO LARGER FIELD

Resigns Judgeship to Take Part in Politics.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Peter S. Grosscup has served notice that he will resign from the Federal bench immediately after October 2.

Epitomized, the reasons the judge gave for his impending action was that he wished to get out of office in order to have a larger field as an individual, and in order that he might take part in the big politics that he believes are impending. And he repeated these reasons as the real ones for his action when he was found at the Exmouth Club later in the evening.

"This there been any intimation from Washington that you should resign?" was the pertinent question he was asked. "No," he said, gravely, and then his eyes twinkled as he added: "If there had been any such intimation I would not resign."

"What is the reason for your sudden determination to leave the Federal bench?" the reporter continued.

"I gave my reasons in the little statement made public," said the judge. "I really want to get out of office to have freedom, more liberty as a citizen, and as an individual."

"And then I expect to mix in politics a little, just as I said. I think there are to be important changes in the politics of the country. I desire to take my part in a way that I could not if I remained upon the bench."

"The next election will be the last one we will have based on the old party system. After the next election, as they probably will, I think we will have a revolution of the American people upon rational lines."

"What do you think these lines will be?"

"The control of the corporations, the public monopolies," he said without any hesitation.

"The real issue is going to be over the control and regulation of monopolies. The big corporations are the creations of the State, and the State should control them. I would not control their operations, but their profits. I would not fix the prices they should charge for their products, but I would fix their dividends. I would limit their dividends to a reasonable return upon their investments."

"We have got to deal with the big corporations," the judge went on. "Just as we deal with the labor unions. Those unions are described as combinations in the Sherman act. They may do great good or great harm. As long as they do good they are not inhibited in their operations. It is only when they become a menace to the welfare of the nation that they are restricted. And they are not considered a menace until they do a wrong act. I would give the corporations the same protection. I would permit them to get monopolies, and, of course, we have a right to say how much they make out of the power we give them."

"Mr. Rockefeller," the judge said, "has a right as an individual to make as much as he can. But Mr. Rockefeller with a charter from the State in his pocket is a different person, and has the right to make from that charter only what the State thinks is fair and reasonable."

HARVESTER TRUST NEXT.

Reorganization of Big Corporation Demanded by Government.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—The International Harvester Company will be the next great trust to be legally attacked by the United States government. Steps were taken today, which will probably result in the reorganization of the Harvester Company, a $100,000,000 corporation.

If the government has its way, the company will travel the road of the Standard Oil trust and the tobacco trust to dissolution by the United States Supreme Court. The Harvester people, however, met the government half way, instead of denying it and standing suit. They have embraced Attorney General Wickham by demanding a definition of a "lawful" trust, expressing a willingness to reorganize without a court mandate.

The Chicago McCormicks are coming back into their own. They are steering away from Wall street the vast industry which their forefathers founded.

High finance—exploiting industries for big profits—has been the backbone of the public trust, and in the case of the Harvester Company must give way to real captains of industry who know their business and insist on running it.

Charles S. Fink, general manager of the Harvester Company, will retire on the expiration of his contract on November 1. It seems that he is to be the sacrificial lamb of the back of one of the public trusts, and his testimony that really repudiated the former scandal and gave it the unusual distinction of a second Senatorial inquiry.

Girl Killed by Runaway Team.

New York, Sept. 19.—Madeline Martin, eight years old, was killed and Margaret Dale, aged nine, was seriously injured by a team of horses which ran away on Brook avenue, after a small boy, sitting on the driver's seat on a delivery wagon, flicked the reins over the back of one of the animals. The two girls, with other children, were roller skating on the pavement in front of the team, and did not have time to reach the sidewalk. Both were trampled under the horses' feet.

SPAIN ON VERGE OF A REVOLUTION

deadly clashes with the troops are expected.

Premier Cancladas announced that the outbreaks yesterday at Valencia and Barcelona were the first step in a well-planned revolutionary plot, the details of which were subsequently learned by the police. The assassination of Gen. Weyler, captain general of Catalonia, was to have been accomplished at once, and other high officials were marked for death. Several of the conspirators have been arrested.

Valencia has been under martial law since yesterday, when the city was in a riotous turmoil. The authorities pinned the upper hand in the afternoon, but after midnight the strikers proceeded to the adjacent town of Cullera, where they murdered a judge and wounded several other officials who had been engaged in the trial of those who had been arrested earlier in the day.

The situation is acute to-night at Bilbao, Saragossa, Cadix, Huelva, Seville and Gijon, where rioting has been in progress since yesterday morning. A mob stormed the jail at Bilbao this afternoon in an attempt to free three prisoners and their purpose was frustrated only by a volley from the troops. Twenty-six were wounded.

The execution of Prof. Ferrer in 1909 is being raised as an issue by the revolutionary leaders with tremendous effect. Valencia, Spain, Sept. 19.—An armed band of 250 revolutionists is spreading terror in the country by the murder of many of its inhabitants of the towns of Alcoer and Caragente, who revolted to-day, drove out the authorities and proclaimed a commune. A strong band of troops is occupying these towns to-night, as well as Cullera, where the rioters killed a judge yesterday.

Looked for a Republic.

London, Sept. 19.—That the critical situation in Spain will result eventually in the overthrow of King Alfonso and the establishment of a republican government is the opinion of official London to-night.

The action of the Lloyd in granting insurance against the downfall of the Spanish monarchy at the extremely high rate of 25 quines per cent, and the subsequent business done at that rate, is regarded as highly significant of the true state of affairs in King Alfonso's kingdom. Great uneasiness is felt in financial circles, and an unloading of Spanish securities is looked for.

Flowers against Alfonso have been sent in London and other European centers for several weeks. It is learned to-night, and the outbreak in Spain is believed to be the forerunner of a revolution of greater magnitude than was indicated by the conspiracy uncovered by the police at Barcelona.

A dispatch from Madrid to-night states that a right censorship has been proclaimed, and it is impossible to transmit messages containing revolutionary news.

DRIVEN INSANE BY WIFE'S SUICIDE

Millionaire's Son Elopel with Mother's Maid.

New York, Sept. 19.—It became known to-night that Charles A. Thomas, son of Percival Thomas, head of the American Wood Dye Company, and rated as a millionaire, is a patient in the State Hospital, the room which constituted their home.

He was sent two weeks ago, following the suicide of a young woman bearing his name. Thomas is said to have eloped from Atlantic City with his mother's Scotch maid last August. He was off by his family and came to New York. He took to drinking when he failed to find work, and ending in a stupor one day in the room which constituted their home.

On the day of her death a wedding present came from the bride's parents in Stillwater, Minn., accompanied by a note wishing the couple happiness.

I. O. O. F. IN JANGLE.

Friction Between Sovereign Lodge and Patriarchs.

Indianapolis, Sept. 19.—Canadian representatives in the Sovereign Grand Lodge of old Pollock were gratified today by the unanimous action of the lodge in rejecting Winnipeg, Manitoba, as next year's meeting-place of the sovereign body.

Friction between the governing bodies of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the Patriarchs Militant, the military branch of the order, is reaching the danger point, because of the recommendation of the grand altar, John B. Cockrum, that the office of commander of the Patriarchs Militant be made appointive instead of elective.

This question is regarded as the most important yet proposed to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The military council of the Patriarchs Militant voted almost unanimously against the recommendation of the grand altar.

In submitting to the Sovereign Grand Lodge as a part of his report decisions on forty-nine lodge questions which had been made by him during the last year, Grand Sir John B. Cockrum, accompanied by a group of the judiciary committee of the Grand Lodge.

GLEN ECHO POPULAR.

Large Crowds Flocking to the Suburban Resort.

One of the largest crowds of the season flocked to Glen Echo last night, the special attraction being the extra display of fireworks, which began at 8 o'clock.

Judging from the attendance, which was larger than the first week of the season, the management made no mistake in deciding to keep the park open for another week.

On Thursday night another fireworks display is announced, and in addition the free motion pictures and all the attractions will be kept in operation right up to the closing hour on Saturday night.

When the season of 1911 at Glen Echo Park, the most successful of its history, will come to an end.

Two Injured in Class Rushes.

Iowa City, Iowa, Sept. 19.—Class rushes resulted in the severe injury of two Iowa University students yesterday. Adolph E. Burghard, of Fort Dodge, sustained a fractured rib, and Clyde Chitty, of Nevada, suffered a broken collarbone. A dozen other students were injured less seriously.

Gen. Firmin Dead.

St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, Sept. 19.—Antenor Firmin, who was until recently a prominent figure in Haitian affairs, died here at 7:30 this morning of heart failure. The funeral will be held to-morrow.

GORMAN IS TOLD OF NOMINATION

Formally Notified by Democrats of Maryland.

Laurel, Md., Sept. 19.—Arthur Poe Gorman, Jr., was formally notified this afternoon of his nomination for governor by the Democrats of Maryland. In his speech of acceptance he pledged himself to good government within his own party and flayed the Republican candidate and platform.

An ideal setting was formed for the notification exercises, which were held on the lawn of Fairview, the home of Mr. Gorman in Howard County, where his father, the late United States Senator Gorman, entertained many conspicuous men and was the central figure in many political conferences of State and national importance.

In addition to the gubernatorial candidate, Edgar Allan Poe and Emerson C. Harrington were notified of their nomination for attorney general and comptroller, respectively.

While harmony prevailed at the meeting and "we are all together, boys," was the slogan, there were some conspicuous absentees, especially among the factors on the Lee side in the recent primary. Senator Lee himself was unable to be present, as were Gov. Crothers, who was attending a farmers' meeting at Leonardtown, former Gov. Edwin Warfield, Congressman Talbot, Senator Rayner, and William L. Marbury. The latter, however, wrote Senator Gorman that his candidacy for the governorship would receive his (Marbury's) hearty and unreserved support.

GATES' WILL FILED.

Bulk of Estate Goes to Widow and Son.

Reynolds, Tex., Sept. 19.—The will of John W. Gates was filed for probate here to-day, and for the first time its contents were opened to the public. Mr. Gates made his widow residuary legatee and bequeathed Charles G. Gates, his son, $100,000 outright, in addition to creating for him a trust fund of $200,000, from which the income will be about $10,000. This fund makes it impossible for Charles G. Gates to ever "go broke."

While the great bulk of the estate, estimated at $200,000, goes to Mrs. Gates, the latter will comply with her husband's death wish that she turn over a portion of the fortune sufficiently large to make her share and the son's equal.

The will confirms the report that Mr. Gates, while about $50,000 to relatives and friends.

SMART SET DUPED.

Newport Hostesses Taken in by Pseudo Diplomat.

Newport, Sept. 19.—A supposed attaché of a foreign legation, who has been here for several years, living in luxury and signing "markers" for all his indebtedness, is being investigated by the police. Chief Crowley says he has evidence that the man is attached to no legation whatever, although he has been entertained as a high diplomatic officer by many prominent hostesses. A society woman of the smart colony is said to have informed upon the man by means of anonymous letters.

Several instances of thieving are also encasing the attention of the police. Mrs. Edward J. Herwind gave a dance a few nights ago, at which Mrs. F. Lothrop Ames, of Boston, lost a $200 necklace. Mrs. J. B. Lippincott, of Philadelphia, lost a $2,000 collection of jewels while attending an affair at the Jamestown Yacht Club.

PLOT TO DETHRONE

SERBIA'S RULER

Vienna Under Martial Law. Business Halts.

Vienna, Sept. 19.—This city is comparatively quiet under martial law to-night. The city is filled with troops, and all business is at a standstill. The saloons were closed at 10 o'clock this afternoon, and drastic measures have been adopted to prevent further disorder. Government officials are in conference to devise means of ameliorating the conditions resulting from the high cost of living necessities.

The situation took on a new aspect to-day upon the receipt of advice from Belgrade that a plot was under way to dethrone King Peter of Serbia and place on the throne Crown Prince Alexander. Twenty of the leaders have been arrested. The uprising against King Peter is due to the memoirs of former Minister Nawakowitch, in which he accuses the monarch of being the prime mover in the plot to murder King Alexander and Queen Draga.

J. I. McCALLUM TO WED.

Washingtonian Wins Miss Violet Lockwood, of Baltimore.

Baltimore, Sept. 19.—Announcement of the engagement of Miss Violet Lockwood, granddaughter of Mrs. and the late Joseph P. McCay, of Baltimore, to James Iver McCallum, of Washington, was made to-day. The wedding will take place at the McCay home, 516 Cathedral street, on October 10.

Mr. McCallum married Miss Mary Sherman, daughter of John Sherman, then Secretary of State, in 1894, but was divorced on March 5, 1910.

Mr. McCallum resides at the Ethelhurst, Fifteenth and L streets northwest. He was not seen at his apartments last night, an employee of the house denied any knowledge of his engagement.

"AN AMERICAN TRAIT."

W. B. Howells, moralizing on American humanism—which seems to mean for it, ignoring all obstacles, if, after the Colonel Seifers manner, they have not fancied it already in their grasp.

Americans—that is, those Americans who have shaped the national character—have always had and made directly as if it were the short one. The projected end of an enterprise was instantly seized upon as something to be worked up to, in so vast a leverage that optimism was like their religious faith—the evidence of things not seen.

TIE-UP IN IRELAND.

Strike Spreading and Troops Are Called Out.

Dublin, Sept. 19.—Traffic on the Great Southern and Western railroads is completely tied up to-night as a result of the strike. The trouble is spreading rapidly throughout the west and south.

Troops have been stationed at various points to aid the police, who are guarding the railroad stations. The main force of troops is held under arms.

Prices of food stuffs are soaring and a wide revolt against the high cost of necessities is feared.

Hundreds of Americans and English tourists are held up through the suspension of their booking to the interior. Orders have been sent to Euston Station in London to book passengers for Ireland only at their own risk.

A serious disturbance occurred to-day when a squad of Scotch strike-breakers, who were marching with a police escort to take the places of the strikers, broke ranks and made a hostile demonstration. They attacked the police, but were repelled after a sharp fight.

Police Seek Missing Girl.

Fifteen-year-old Christella M. Knight, who has been missing from her home at Laytonville, Montgomery County, Md., for the past two days, is being sought by the Washington police, at the request of the girl's aunt, Mrs. M. Klander. All the hotels and hospitals in the city have been canvassed by detectives in an effort to locate the girl.

Last of Frontier Jail.

Fort Smith, Ark., Sept. 19.—The Federal jail here, last of those remaining from border times, has been closed.
